If Your Tears Were Gold
Quincy Allen Flint

Capo II
Key C -> D

I can hear a song coming down the line
And all the words, you bet they rhyme
In a heartbreak world, I need a love story
And a soft and sweet, slow melody

I can sooth your doubts I can ease your mind
I can listen close and I've been known to cry
But I won't run, and I won't hide
I'll never cheat, and I don't lie

Does time drag on, when I'm away
Are you there, wishing that I'd stay
Or are you off with another man
Well if you're not, will you take my hand

Can you say the same, my blue-eyed dream
When times are hard, and our money's lean
And all we've got is the love we share
If that's my life, will you be there?

If your tears were gold and my words could buy
There'd be a richer man standing by your side
But your tears ain't gold and my word's no good
There's a broken fool standing where I should

If your tears were gold and my words could buy
There'd be a richer man standing by your side
But your tears ain't gold and my word's no good
There's a broken fool standing where I should

I can feel your smile like a blazing sun
I can hear your pride, saying "he's the one"
I can feel your shame, from a mile off
I can hear the words, you only thought

C-F-C-C | C-F-C-C | F-F-C-C | G-G-C-C x2
F-Fm-C-Am | D7-D7-G-G7 | F-Fm-C-A | Dm-G-C-C

Is it true, that you want four kids?
That's a lot of time, we're gonna miss
Now I can tell if it's in the cards
I'm a rambling man and I dream on stars

If your tears were gold and my words could buy
There'd be a richer man standing by your side
But your tears ain't gold and my word's no good
There's a broken fool standing where I should
