Love like a well in our penny-rose garden
Up on the hill beyond the pine trees
Love like the morning a breath of sunlight
The smell of your hair and a kiss on my cheek

My love, like a well
My love, like the trees
My love, eternal
My love, assuredly

Love like the ocean, buried in the sand
These feelings inside, I just can't understand
Love like a diamond pressed against the sky
Nothing left to see, nothing left to hide

My love, like the ocean
My love, like the sea
My love, is the moments
My love, assuredly

Love like the seasons, love like the wind
Gone for a while, but I settle back in Love like a mountain I hold on too long
Here for a lifetime, but you're moving on

My love, like the seasons
My love, like the breeze
My love, is devotion
My love, assuredly
